Employment

SESHET Forensic Document Examination • Allentown, PA 2022 to Present

Founder; work includes signature analysis, handwriting verification, fraud detection, disguised writing analysis, opinion letters, reports, and expert witness services. Cases and peer reviews have included signature authentication in insurance and signature authentication in a will dispute, analysis of a child's journal in an incest case, a fraudulent cheque review, an Adobe® "cut and paste" signature falsification, a DocuSign® signature dispute and others. Currently, I am working on book about the "Crime of the Century," the Lindbergh kidnapping of 1932, a case with more than thirteen ransom notes and multilingual complexities. My writing includes traveling the country to collect primary source materials, doing extensive research, working with other forensic experts, and writing a book on the subject.
